Over the past four seasons, the Creighton women's basketball program has become a regular on the national postseason scene. While the Bluejays' personnel has changed, successful results have remained constant. That success has recently been centered around all-conference guards, three-point shooting and a pressing defense. Head coach Jim Flanery will set course on making another trip into the postseason this year, but could do so through a different route.

With guards Laura Spanheimer and Codi Walker lost to graduation, the Bluejays will lack the experienced backcourt presence they had during their postseason run. Spanheimer was a four-year starter at point guard and the Missouri Valley Conference's all-time steals leader, while Walker played more games in a Creighton uniform than any previous Bluejay.

In order to continue success without those important players, Flanery is prepared to do something he has yet to do in his tenure as Bluejay head coach. The coach may experiment with a more traditional starting lineup featuring two guards and three frontcourt players. An experienced group of six seniors, including three "biggs," will make the transition to this new-look setup less daunting than it may first appear. The Bluejays will look to take their new style of play and turn it into continued success as they aim for their fifth consecutive postseason appearance.

Senior forward Angie Janis is expected to once again be the centerpiece of the Bluejay offense after leading the Jays' with 19.1 points and 7.7 rebounds per game last year. The first-team all-MVC performer has proven difficult to defend as her size allows her to excel in the post, while her outside shot enables the Bluejays to stretch the opposition's defense. The Omaha native became just the sixth player in school history to score 500 points and pull down 200 rebounds in the same season last year, and after another excellent off-season Janis is expected to be even better in her final campaign with the Bluejays.

Seniors Christy Erickson and Amy Hoffman will also play major roles in the frontcourt this season. Erickson, a 6-foot-1 forward, was leading the Bluejays in assists last year when her season ended on Jan. 23 after suffering a torn right ACL. An integral part of the CU offense, the Bluejays proved Erickson's worth by going 7-6 without her in the lineup last year. With her knee healthy again, the fifth-year player will return to creating scoring opportunities for her teammates and make her own shot when called upon to do so (54.5 percent from three-point range last season).

Hoffman enters the season aiming at the CU record for career blocked shots. The senior swatted 52 shots to lead the team last year and begins the year ranked fourth in school history,

First-Team All-MVC forward Angie Janis led the team with 19.1 points and 7.7 rebounds per game in 2004-05.

just 39 blocks shy of the record. The 6-foot-2 center is a proven defensive asset for the Jays, while she'll look to put up some offensive numbers as a senior.

Sophomore Sara Cain is the only other returner up front for the Bluejays. She played in all 29 games as a rookie last year, averaging nearly 11 minutes per contest. With a year of experience behind her, the forward is expected to play a larger role with the Jays this season.

Freshmen Megan Neuirth and Kristina Voss will vie for immediate playing time. Neuirth, the Nebraska Gatorade Player of the Kristi Woodard takes aim at the Creighton career free throw accuracy record this season.

Year last year, is a proven winner, as her prep teams at West Point (Neb.) Central Catholic captured four straight state titles with a perfect 102-0 record in that span. While Neuirth presses for time at forward, the 6-foot-2 Voss will look for minutes in the middle. Voss played for one of the top high school programs in the nation, helping her Ankeny (Iowa) High School team to a No. 2 national ranking and four consecutive state championships. The winning attitudes of Neuirth and Voss, coupled with their impressive individual accolades, will help the rookies make an impact this season.

The backcourt will be led by senior Kristi Woodard. The guard out of Bellevue, Neb., averaged 13.3 points and 5.0 rebounds per game for the Jays last season, while finishing second on the team in three-point field goals made. Woodard is a pure shooter, as her career 87.9 percent shooting at the free-throw line would indicate. A tireless worker, if she can continue to excel on offense while contributing more on defense, the Bluejays could have a first-team all-conference guard for the fifth consecutive season.

Sophomore Ally Thrall started 16 games as a rookie last season and is expected to fill the role vacated by Spanheimer at the point this year. A steady and creative ball-handler, Thrall will once again look to distribute more often than she'll look to score. Seniors Brandy Bush and Sarah Vrbicky along with junior Deanna Castro provide the Bluejays with depth and experience in the backcourt, while sophomore Tyrai Bronson will strive for more playing time after being limited by injuries as a freshman last season.

The guard corps gets even deeper with the addition of four newcomers. The freshman quartet of Kelsey Crites, Chevelle Herring, Michelle Kaus and Brittany Lange will all look to get into the rotation and impress enough to see regular minutes in their first collegiate campaigns. Flanery believes that the four rookie guards in addition to the two newcomers in the post will give the Bluejays a boost in speed and keep the Jays' perimeter game dangerous.

Creighton once again plays the toughest non-conference slate in The Valley, which includes four Big 12 opponents. The Jays also host Houston, play at Iowa and participate in a tournament at New Mexico. The Bluejays begin the hunt for their first conference regular-season title since 2002-03 when they play at Northern Iowa (Dec. 29). CU also concludes Valley play with UNI at home on March 4 prior to the State Farm MVC Tournament. For the first time in league history, all 10 Valley schools will make up the tournament field and the championship game will be played on Sunday, March 12 in Springfield, Mo., at Hammons Student Center on the campus of Missouri State.

Credentials

Members of the media covering women's basketball home games must contact Rob Simms to request credentials prior to the day of the game. If time does not permit for passes to be mailed, the credentials may be picked up at the media entrance on the west side of the Omaha Civic Auditorium. Due to space limitations, seating at court-side tables is restricted solely to working media.

CU Athletics on the Web

For all the latest information on Creighton women's basketball, or any other varsity sports, check out CU's official athletics website: www.gocreighton.com

The women's basketball pages include a numerical roster, updated statistics and results, coach and player bios, team notes, game recaps, game box scores, live stats and a photo gallery.

Photo Policy

Only those accredited photographers on assignment will be issued credentials. Photographers may pick up a copy of the game rosters in the media room prior to the game. No flashes or strobes are permitted. Sidelines are to be kept clear. In accordance with NCAA rules, anyone shooting the game must also stay clear of the marked area six-feet behind each baseline.

Interviews

During the week, all player interviews must be coordinated through the sports information office (402) 280-2433. Interviews with head coach Jim Flanery may be arranged by calling the basketball office at (402) 280-4741. The best time to reach Flanery is weekday mornings.

Game-day player interviews prior to a game are not permitted. Coaches will be available for interviews upon request on a first-come, first-served basis.

Following games, the Creighton locker room is closed. At home, Flanery and requested players will be available in the interview room, located at the north end of the concourse on the arena floor level. On the road, Flanery and requested players will be made available upon request.

MVC Teleconference

The Missouri Valley Conference will host a weekly teleconference featuring each of the league's 10 head coaches every Tuesday beginning Jan. 3. Media members may call into the teleconference by dialing (913) 981-5509. Times for the coaches are as follows:

11:50 am Dana Eikenberg, SIU
11:55 am Paula Buscher, Bradley
12:00 pm Jim Flanery, Creighton
12:05 pm Amy Stephens, Drake
12:10 pm Tricia Cullop, Evansville
12:15 pm Robin Pingeton, Illinois State
12:20 pm Jim Wiedie, Indiana State
12:25 pm Katie Abrahamson-Henderson, MSU
12:30 pm Tony DiCecco, UNI
12:35 pm Jane Albright, Wichita State

Visiting Radio

Visiting stations interested in using existing phone lines should contact Rob Simms via e-mail. A total of four radio phone lines (two for Creighton and two for the opponent) will be available for each game. Missouri Valley Conference rules require two courtesy phone lines for the official radio station of member schools. There are no ISDN lines available at the Civic.

For non-conference opponents, the same two lines will be afforded to the team's official radio station at no charge, only if the same courtesy is reciprocated the next time the Bluejays play the same team on the road. Additional opponent radio stations (those not designated as the team's official station) wishing to broadcast a game must order their own lines.

Telephone Lines

Three phone lines in the media room will be available on a first-come, first-served basis. Only local, credit card and collect calls will be allowed.

If a media outlet wishes to have a phone installed, arrangements should be made well in advance by calling Matt Kenny at (402) 444-5070.

Creighton Game Broadcasts

Twenty-six of 29 Bluejay games (including exhibitions) and all postseason contests are scheduled for broadcast on Spirit 88.9 FM (KVSS) during the 2005-06 season. All radio broadcasts will also be carried live online at www.kvss.com. Brad Burwell and former Bluejay Sara Cizek will call the action at home games, while Rob Simms will join Burwell on the road.

- Brandy Bush, Amy Hoffman, Lucy Lapito, Laura Spanheimer, Ally Thrall and Kristi Woodard were each named to the MVC Academic Honor Roll for having at least a 3.2 GPA in the term of recognition.

Academic and Athletic Success

- Creighton's student-athletes combined for a 3.33 GPA last spring. The student-athletes also own a 3.25 cumulative GPA.
- The NCAA recently introduced a new tool for the evaluation of the academic quality of participating programs. The Academic Progress Report is intended to gauge the progress student-athletes are making to degree completion and graduation. Seven CU teams scored a perfect 1,000, with the other seven considerably above the 925 cut off. Creighton's composite score of 987 tied for seventh among all Division I programs nationally.
- An impressive 103 of Creighton's 235 student-athletes (43.8 percent) earned a 3.50 GPA or better during the Spring 2005 semester.
- Twenty-seven student-athletes earned 4.00 GPA's in the Spring 2005 semester.
- Creighton had 131 student-athletes make the Dean's List at least once last year, including 76 student-athletes who earned the honor both semesters.
- One-hundred sixty-six student-athletes (70.6 percent) earned a 3.00 GPA or better in the Spring 2005 semester.
- Seven teams (women's basketball, men's cross country, women's cross country, women's golf, men's tennis, women's tennis and volleyball) had team GPA's of 3.40 or better while five others were higher than 3.00.
- Creighton owns 22 CoSIDA Academic All-American honors.

Creighton
UNIVERSITY

Location

Creighton is located in Omaha, Neb., population 409,416 with a combined metropolitan population of 1.1 million people in eight counties.

Creighton History

Founded in 1878, Creighton University is a private co-educational university in the United States, founded by the Society of Jesus and one of 28 member institutions of the Association of Jesuit Colleges and Universities.

Creighton has been ranked No. 1 among Midwestern colleges by U.S. News & World Report for two straight years.

Creighton Today

The Creighton of today is nationally recognized as the leading comprehensive university in the Midwest. Creighton is synonymous with student centered education and the setting for significant undergraduate student research. As one of 28 universities in America designed in the Jesuit tradition of academic excellence and service to others, Creighton believes in humanistic education through service, reflection and learning. We also seek to create an inclusive, diverse community at the University. Today, Creighton offers more than 50 majors in the undergraduate divisions of Arts and Sciences, Business Administration and the School of Nursing, plus six prestigious professional schools: Medicine, Dentistry, Law, Pharmacy and Health professions.

The 2004 freshman academic profile places Creighton among the top six private universities in the Midwest, and among the top 10 Catholic universities in the nation. And U.S. News & World Report lists Creighton as a "best value" one of the schools where students get the best return on their tuition investment. Creighton has also been cited as outstanding by other publications, including Money, Kiplinger's Personal Finance and Peterson's Best 311 Colleges. Princeton Review, Inc., also recently ranked Creighton among the nation's top colleges and universities.

Student Life at Creighton

- Ten nationally recognized social fraternities and sororities.
- More than 180 active student clubs and organizations.
- With free high-speed Internet access in each of the eight residence halls, apartment living for juniors and seniors, and a special hall for graduate and married students.
- Creighton is a wireless campus, accommodating the more than 95% of students with mobile computing devices.
- As a Jesuit institution, Creighton makes service a core part of the educational mission. Creighton students, faculty and staff serve all over the U.S. and around the world, in 90 countries and on seven continents. Programs of service include educational outreach, medical and dental assistance, pro bono legal work and more.
- Creighton welcomes students of all religious beliefs and the University encourages students to participate in faith retreats, faith sharing opportunities and multi-faith services for more than 30 religions.

Student Snapshot

Creighton students come from every state and more than 65 countries. Of our 6,804 students, 3,999 are enrolled as undergraduates, and 2,805 are in the graduate, law, medical, dental, pharmacy and health professions programs.

The Creighton Campus

At Creighton, we are committed to having the best campus around. The 108-acre campus is located within walking distance of downtown Omaha and many recreational, cultural and entertainment opportunities. To date, Creighton has invested more than $175 million in on-campus improvements and constructed three new buildings, including Michael G. Morrison, S.J., Stadium, which distinguishes Omaha as the exclusive host of the region's only athletic facility designed exclusively for soccer. The stadium hosts high school, club and international soccer events and a variety of Omaha community events. The Hixson-Lied Science Building and the renovated Riggs Science Building and Criss Health Sciences Building are the centerpiece of a $56 million initiative providing Creighton's undergraduate and health professions a leading edge approach to teaching and research. The Davis Square Town homes are the new upperclassmen town homes that are located on the east side of campus.

At the center of the campus is the historic St. John's Church, the California Street Mall, the Lied Education Center for the Arts, a modern student center and physical fitness facility.

The Hixson-Lied Science Building opened in the spring of 2003.

Community Service & Outreach

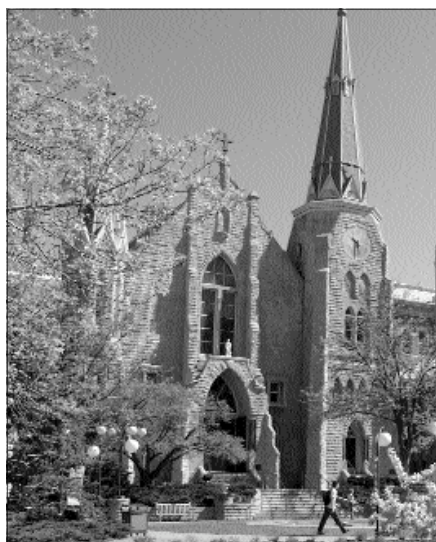

At Creighton, students have the opportunity to live the Jesuit Mission - to become a part of the Jesuit belief of the value and dignity of the individual. With an emphasis on service and social justice, the Creighton education will give students the foundation for a life well lived. Last year, Creighton faculty, staff and students volunteered in 60 agencies in the greater Omaha area, providing service in more than 100 programs supported by the University and Medical Center.

Faculty

- A total of 1,526 faculty members.
- Student-to-faculty ratio of 13:1.
- At Creighton, the faculty is conducting internationally recognized work in many areas, including hereditary cancer, osteoporosis, hearing impairment, bone metabolism, regional economics and more.

2004-05 Athletics Highlights

- Creighton serves as the annual host institution for the NCAA College World Series. June 16-26, 2006 will mark the 57th consecutive year the CWS comes to Rosenblatt Stadium in Omaha.
- Creighton student-athletes owned a GPA of 3.33 last spring, an all-time high.
- The baseball team won its first-ever MVC regular-season title, advanced to Regional play and finished 48-17. Ed Servais earned MVC Coach of the Year honors for the second straight year.

- The men's basketball program set an MVC record with its seventh straight 20-win season while advancing to the NCAA Tourney for the sixth time in seven years.
- The women's basketball team played in the WNIT, its fourth straight postseason.
- The men's soccer team capped its 13th consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance while remaining the only program with at least one selection in every MLS draft. The program has made three College Cup showings since 1996.
- One of the premier soccer venues in the country, the Michael G. Morrison, S.J., Stadium was named and dedicated.
- The softball team won its third straight MVC Tournament and advanced to the NCAA's for the fourth time in seven years.

History of Billy Bluejay

"Billy Bluejay" is the official mascot of the Creighton University athletics department. The Bluejays were originally depicted by a "birdwatcher's bluejay," but that was changed in 1941 when Joseph P. Murphy, a Creighton alumnus, designed the current version of Billy, one with a more human stance and expression.

Prior to 1924, Creighton teams were referred to as the "Hilltoppers," but that name lost favor because at least six other teams in the country also used the same nickname. The Omaha Bee assisted the University's Athletic Board and Alumni Association in finding a new nickname by asking readers to submit possibilities. After reviewing 200 entries, the Athletic Board decided upon "Bluejays" because of the school's colors, blue and white.

Today, Creighton remains the only NCAA Division I athletics program known officially as the Bluejays.

- Creighton will co-host the first two rounds of the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament at Qwest Center OMAHA™ on March 20 & 22, 2008.

CU Athletics on the Web

Visit the official home page of the Bluejays at <http://www.gocreighton.com> to get the latest news on Creighton Athletics.

The site contains updated rosters, schedules, statistics and links on everything related to CU Athletics. It also offers a photo gallery containing over 500 pictures of the Bluejay women's basketball team in game action.

All Bluejay women's basketball games which are broadcast on the radio will also be linked as a web broadcast on the site, allowing fans from all over the world to listen. Live stats for volleyball, basketball, soccer, baseball and softball are also now available.

Under the leadership of Creighton President the Rev. John P. Schlegel, S.J., Creighton University is nationally recognized as the leading comprehensive university in the Midwest and within the Jesuit network of universities.

Fr. Schlegel became Creighton University's 23rd president in August 2000, following nine years as president of the University of San Francisco.

Fr. Schlegel is leading Creighton into a new era of growth and prosperity. Through his vision, the University is embarking on its most ambitious campus expansion in its 127-year history. Creighton University will become a national model showcasing a dynamic faith-based living and learning community in a 21st century urban environment.

Fr. Schlegel has initiated changes that have enhanced the already nationally recognized academic quality of Creighton and the beauty of the campus. During his tenure several new construction projects have taken place or are in progress. Creighton renovated and is expanding its Integrated Science Center, which includes the new Hixson-Lied Science Building and totally renovated Rigge Science and Criss Medical buildings. Creighton's Science Center and the Creighton University Medical Center provide a national model for interdisciplinary health sciences education and research.

The newly built, beautiful red brick Junior-Senior Town Homes anchor Creighton's eastward expansion that is taking shape nearby Omaha's dynamic downtown and riverfront redevelopment. Creighton's campus expansion to the east and west will provide Omaha with a park-like setting, offering green spaces, pathways and plazas. Add to that the new Michael G. Morrison, S.J., Stadium, which is among the premier college campus soccer facilities in the nation.

Prior to his service at the University of San Francisco, Fr. Schlegel was Creighton University's assistant academic vice president (1978-82), academic dean of Rockhurst College (1982-84), dean of arts and sciences at Marquette University (1984-88), and executive and academic vice president at John Carroll University (1988-91).

Fr. Schlegel, a native of Dubuque, Iowa, entered the Society of Jesus in 1963 and was ordained in 1973. He holds B.A. and M.A. degrees from Saint Louis University; a B.D. honors degree in theology from the University of London; and a doctorate in international relations from Oxford University.

He is a member of numerous international, national and local boards of directors, executive committees and associations. Fr. Schlegel is a past member of the board of trustees of Chicago's Loyola University, Xavier University, Loyola University of the South, St. Louis University and Loyola College in Maryland. Fr. Schlegel also is a director of the American International School of Hong Kong.

In Omaha, he serves on several boards including Creighton University Medical Center, Creighton Preparatory School, Duchesne Academy, and Opera Omaha. He is a member of the board of directors and serves on the Executive Committees of the Greater Omaha

Chamber of Commerce, Joslyn Art Museum and Mid-America Council, Boy Scouts of America.

Previously, he has held numerous board positions with an array of organizations including St. Mary's Medical Center Foundation, Il Cenacolo, Coro, World Affairs Council of Northern California, the Association of Catholic Colleges and Universities, the National Association of Independent Colleges and Universities, where he served as chair of the National Student Aid Task Force, and Heythrop College at the University of London.

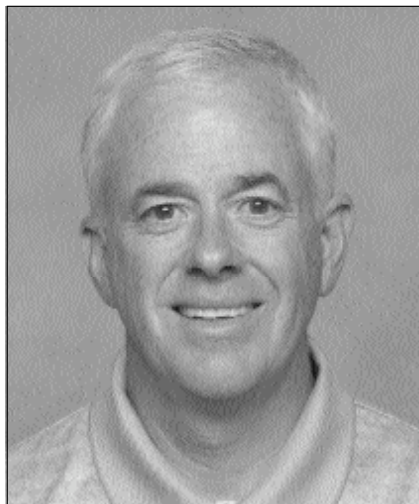

Fr. Schlegel also has served on accreditation site visits for the North Central Association, and was a consultant to the Organization for Economic Development and Cooperation based in Paris.

In May of 2004 the Woodmen of the World Life Insurance Society Lodge 1 in Omaha presented him with the 2004 Honored Citizen Award for his outstanding leadership of Creighton University. For his promotion of understanding and respect among all races, religions and cultures, Fr. Schlegel received the Otto Swanson Spirit of Service Award from the National Conference for Community and Justice in May 2003. Fr. Schlegel also received the first Champion of Greatness Award from Special Olympics Nebraska.

He enjoys opera, classical music, gourmet cooking, racket sports and the outdoors.

Fr. John P. Schlegel, S.J., stands outside the Administration Building talking with students, an activity he enjoys year-round. Fr. Schlegel became Creighton's 23rd president in August, 2000.

Bruce Rasmussen is in his 12th year as director of athletics, and 26th overall at Creighton University.

During his tenure, Creighton has risen to prominence with its success on-and-off the field, impressive new facilities and record-breaking fundraising efforts.

The men's soccer team is one of a handful of schools to appear in each of the last 13 NCAA Tournaments, while the men's basketball team is just the third team in the 98-year history of the Missouri Valley Conference to reach the postseason in eight straight campaigns. Combined, Creighton is the only school in the country that can claim eight consecutive postseason appearances in men's soccer and men's basketball.

The Creighton softball team has made three consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances and ranked as high as 19th nationally last year, while the baseball team won its first regular-season league title and finished the year in the national rankings.

Four Creighton teams moved to new facilities in 2003-04. The men's basketball team moved to the riverfront to play in the brand new, $291 million, Qwest Center OMAHA™. In their new confines, the Jays averaged an MVC-best 12,016 fans per game and attracted nine of the top 10 home crowds in school history.

The Michael G. Morrison, S.J., Stadium opened as one of the premier soccer venues in the country. Located on the east edge of the Creighton campus, the complex includes 6,000 seats and served as the home for the 2005

State Farm Missouri Valley Conference Women's Soccer Tournament.

Additionally, the Creighton volleyball team found a new home at the venerable Omaha Civic Auditorium in 2003. The move closer to campus paid big dividends, as the program established a new average attendance mark.

Rasmussen also has continued to make outstanding hires at every opportunity. Most recently, Kirsten Bernthal Booth has helped the volleyball team improve by 15 wins in her first two seasons, while Ed Servais has earned MVC Coach of the Year honors in each of his first two years.

Another recent hire, women's basketball's Jim Flanery, matched the league record with 48 wins in his first two seasons. He has led three straight teams to the postseason. CU's 2004 women's basketball team won the school's first postseason national title of any kind when they won the WNIT.

A member of the College World Series of Omaha, Inc., Executive Committee, Rasmussen plays a vital role in Creighton and the city of Omaha remaining as host of the College World Series. The CWS has established new attendance records in each of the past three years at Rosenblatt Stadium.

Rasmussen was one of four regional winners from the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) to take home a 2004 GeneralSports TURF Systems AD of the Year Award.

In terms of academics, Creighton's reputation as one of the nation's top academic institutions is reflected in the success the Bluejay student-athletes have had in the classroom during Rasmussen's service as athletics director. Creighton's baseball, men's basketball, women's basketball, volleyball, men's and women's cross country, women's soccer and men's and women's tennis teams all have received national awards for their academic success. Last spring, Bluejay student-athletes had an average GPA of 3.33, an all-time high.

Creighton's primary annual fund-raising events are the Bluejay Bash, the Bluejay Golf Marathon and the Bluejay Jamboree. Under Rasmussen's supervision, each of these events continues to raise record-breaking funds for Creighton athletics. Most notably, the 2004

Jamboree generated more than $319,000 through its gourmet dinner, raffle and auction.

The successful fund-raising efforts have allowed Creighton to enhance its facilities under Rasmussen's leadership. In 1998, the $1.7 million Student-Athlete Support Center renovation project was completed in the Old Gymnasium, resulting in seven new team locker rooms, an expanded athletic training facility, new offices and storage space and an academic learning center. The centerpiece of the project is The Parker Family Foundation Academic Learning Center, which houses the athletic department's academic support team and features 20 computer stations and private study areas.

Rasmussen accepted the associate athletics director position in 1992 after a 12-year run as the winningest coach in Creighton women's basketball history (196-147), culminating in the program's historic 1991-92 season.

The 1992 Western Athletic Conference Coach of the Year, Rasmussen led the 1991-92 Bluejay women to a program-record 28 wins (28-4), the WAC regular-season and tournament championships and a first-round NCAA Tournament victory in the program's first-ever trip to the "Big Dance." With that 28-4 record in 1991-92, Rasmussen completed his college coaching career with a 196-147 record, good for a .571 winning percentage.

After serving as associate athletics director for two years, 1992-94, Rasmussen was named athletics director on Aug. 1, 1994.

A 1971 graduate of Northern Iowa, Rasmussen came to Creighton from Bettendorf (Iowa) High School, where he put together a three-year girl's basketball coaching record of 64-15. His 1978-79 club posted a mark of 27-2 and finished second at the state tournament. Rasmussen also coached at Maxwell (Iowa) High School, with a four-year record of 66-26, and Murray (Iowa) High School, with a two-year ledger of 31-13.

A native of Webster City, Iowa, Rasmussen and his wife, Jill, have five children: Megan (20), David (18), John (14), Katy (10) and Grace (7).

Omaha is a rich cultural city with a dynamic business community. Ranked by Forbes magazine as one of the Top 10 Best Places for Business and Careers, Omaha balances Midwest values with big-city life in the heart of America. It showcases numerous nationally recognized and world-renowned attractions.

A center for information technology, telecommunications, transportation and food processing, Omaha is the center of a metropolitan area of about 734,270, with more than one million people within a 50-mile radius. Omaha is located near the geographic center of the United States, on the west bank of the Missouri River that forms the Nebraska-Iowa border. The metro Omaha area has seen steady growth over the past five decades and is now the 42nd largest city and 61st largest metro area in the nation.

With an outstanding public education system, Omaha was selected as a model of business-education partnerships to kick off America 2000. Nebraska ranks among the top states nationally for ACT and SAT scores. For 127 years, Omaha has been home to Creighton University, which is known as the best comprehensive Jesuit institution in the nation, consistently at the top of U.S. News & World Report annual rankings.

Omaha serves as headquarters for three Forbes 500 companies: #11 Berkshire Hathaway, #71 Union Pacific and #87 ConAgra Foods. More than 20 insurance companies, two dozen direct response/telemarketing centers and a number of other national and international firms also have headquarters in Omaha. The headquarters of STRATCOM, a vital military nerve center located at Offutt Air Force Base, is located in Omaha.

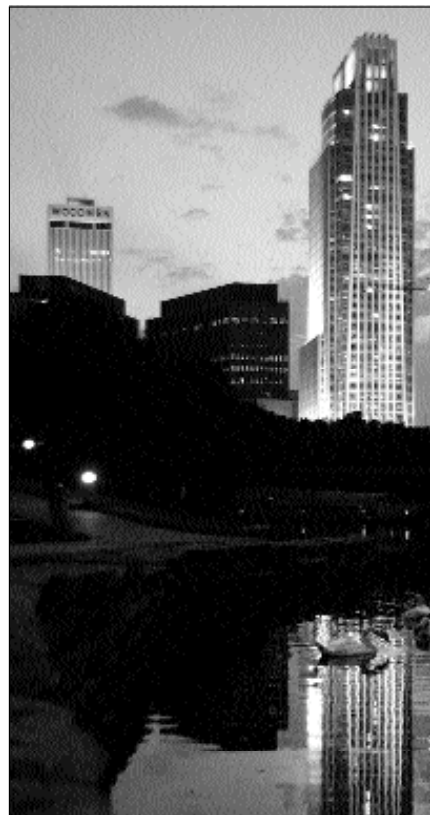

Omaha's unemployment rate has remained well under the national average during the past decade. Still, Omaha has accommodated new growth. During the 1990s, the Omaha metro area added more than 84,000 jobs, an increase of more than 25 percent.

Omaha is a cultural center of the Great Plains, with more than 20 live theaters (three that produce original works), a professional opera company, a regional professional symphony orchestra, a professional children's theater, a children's museum and a youth orchestra. Joslyn Art Museum and the Durham Western Heritage Museum are the two largest of many area art and historical offerings.

The Omaha Henry Doorly Zoo has an international reputation for its breeding programs, and its outstanding "no bars" facility boasts the world's largest indoor rain forest, cat complex and aviary. Its newest additions are a salt water aquarium, the most technically advanced in the country, an IMAX theater, the largest indoor desert in the world and a gorilla complex.

Outstanding sporting events in the area include the annual NCAA College World Series, for which Creighton serves as host, Omaha Ak-Sar-Ben Knights (AHL), Omaha Royals (AAA baseball), the Omaha Lancers (U.S. Hockey League), the Omaha Beef (National Indoor Football League) and a wide variety of collegiate and individual sports.

With all the city has to offer, Omaha enjoys a cost of living ranging up to 13 percent below the national average.

Qwest Center OMAHA™ is home to Creighton men's basketball, the 2006 NCAA Women's Volleyball Championships, the first-and-second rounds of the 2008 NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament and the 2010 NCAA Wrestling Championships.

For the 57th consecutive year, Omaha will serve as host city for the NCAA College World Series at Rosenblatt Stadium, June 16-26, 2006.

Jim Flanery

Head Coach • Fourth Season

Creighton, 1987

The beginning of Jim Flanery's head coaching career has brought unprecedented success to the Creighton women's basketball program and is unmatched by his Bluejay and league predecessors. In three seasons at the helm, his teams have made three straight national postseason appearances, captured a Missouri Valley Conference regular-season championship, made two appearances in the postseason WNIT Final Four and captured the first post-season national championship in school history by winning the 2004 WNIT.

Individually, he became the winningest rookie coach in school and league history with 24 wins during the 2002-03 season. The 48 wins his teams compiled during his first two seasons with the Bluejays has never been topped in MVC history.

The Bluejays have played in the WNIT in each of Flanery's first three seasons, moving CU's streak of postseason appearances to four consecutive years – a school record. The Jays notched 24 wins in both of his first two years as head coach to continue a trend the 2001-02 squad started, becoming the first team in league history to record three straight seasons with at least 24 victories.

His teams have also been some of the best to put on the Bluejay uniform, setting numerous school records. The Jays established a school record for blocked shots in Flanery's first campaign, only to be outdone by last year's squad. Last season's team also became the most accurate free-throw shooting team in school history, shooting 75.3 percent from the line. During his first two years, the Bluejays set school records for three-point field goals made.

The 2004-05 season witnessed Flanery engineer a 19-10 campaign and a third straight invite to the WNIT, where the Bluejays made their earliest exit from the tournament since 1999. The Jays' remained among the MVC's best by tying for a second-place finish at 13-5 in conference play. An eight-game winning streak during the heart of the season was CU's longest in the Flanery era and the Jays were a perfect 3-0 against Big 12 teams.

Creighton has proved to be a national power under Flanery's guidance, ranking among the NCAA elite over the last three seasons. Last year the Bluejays ended the season ranked in the top-25 in the NCAA in points per game, three-point field goals per game, fewest turnovers per game and free-throw shooting. The Jays received votes in the final USA Today/ESPN poll in 2003-04, along with ranking third in the NCAA in three-point field goals per game and 11th in fewest turnovers per game. CU ranked among the top-30 in the nation in three-pointers per game, steals per game, fewest turnovers per game and points per game during the 2002-03 season.

Flanery's engaging personality and exciting coaching style have made the Bluejays increasingly visible in the community. The Jays have compiled an impressive 37-5 record at home and made the Omaha Civic Auditorium their permanent residence since Flanery took over the program. Fans have responded to the success and set single-game and average attendance records. The top two home crowds and six of the top-10 crowds in school history have come during Flanery's reign, while fans set an average home attendance record in 2002-03.

Flanery and the Bluejays concluded the 2003-04 season by claiming the first national postseason tournament title in school history, capturing the WNIT Championship. Their 5-0 run through the postseason was capped by a 73-52 rout of UNLV at the Omaha Civic Auditorium. CU arrived at the championship by clinching two road victories, topping two Pac-10 teams and cruising through three home games. The Jays became the first team from the MVC to win the WNIT. Flanery's team set a then WNIT record by making 44 three-point field goals, while also shooting an impressive 89.9 percent (71-for-79) from the free-throw line.

He posted the best rookie season by a head coach in CU and Valley history in 2002-03, as he guided his Bluejays to their second consecutive MVC regular-season title and a WNIT semifinal appearance. After serving as the Bluejays' top assistant coach for the previous decade, Flanery tallied a 24-9 overall record in his first season at the helm, 13-5 in The Valley.

His 24 wins surpassed his predecessor, Connie Yori, for the most successful rookie coaching campaign in school history. His win total also made him the most successful first-year coach in conference history, topping Lisa Stone's 23 wins at Drake in 2000-01. He would then tie Stone, following the 2003-04 season for the best two-year start in league history, with 48 victories.

Flanery's first season ended with a flurry, as the Jays won three games on the road in the WNIT. The Jays traveled to the Northeast, where they defeated Maine and Siena. Returning to the midwest, the Jays defeated Big Ten foe, Iowa, for the second time in 2002-03. CU then returned home to host Auburn in a WNIT Final Four game in front of a school record 4,439 fans.

Individuals have excelled under Flanery's mentoring, as Laura Spanheimer earned MVC Defensive Player of the Year honors twice and became the first player in league history to be named to the all-defensive team four times. Spanheimer also twice earned WNIT All-Tournament recognition. Christy Neneman was tabbed the 2004 WNIT Most Valuable Player and the 2003 MVC Player of the Year under Flanery's watch.

He has also guided one of the top academic teams in the nation during his stint at Creighton, beginning as an assistant coach in 1992. The Jays' team grade point average has ranked in the top 10 nationally four times since 1992, while ranking 19th in the NCAA in team GPA and earning WBCA Academic Top 25 Team recognition each of the past two seasons. Fifteen first-team MVC scholar-athletes have played for Flanery, including two academic All-Americans. Both Spanheimer and Dayna Finch have earned MVC Prairie Farms Scholar Athlete of the Year recognition.

Flanery is no stranger to Creighton basketball, heading into his 14th consecutive season with the Bluejay women's basketball program. A 1987 Creighton graduate with a bachelor of arts degree in philosophy, he was also a member of the Bluejay men's basketball team from 1985 to 1987. He was also a member of the CU golf team during his four-year collegiate career.

Flanery was handed the reins to his first head coaching position on July 19, 2002, four weeks after Yori's resignation. He is the sixth head coach in women's hoops history at Creighton, and just the third since 1980. He succeeded long-time coaching partner, Yori, who he had been on staff with since his graduate assistant days at CU in the late 1980s.

Following his graduation, Flanery joined current Director of Athletics Bruce Rasmussen's Bluejay coaching staff as a graduate assistant for the 1987-88 season. He remained on the women's basketball staff through the 1989-90 season, before heading to Loras College for the 1990-91 season.

Prior to the 1990-91 season, Yori was named head basketball coach at Loras College and hired Flanery as her assistant. At Loras, Flanery helped the Dubuque, Iowa, school to a two-year 25-25 record. In 1991-92, the Duhawks finished with a 15-10 record, the program's first winning season since 1986-87.

When Yori was tabbed as the head coach at Creighton prior to the 1992-93 season, Flanery once again joined forces with Yori to continue the winning tradition Rasmussen had established at CU. As Yori's top assistant, Flanery and the Bluejays notched a 170-115 record in a 10-year span. The Jays made two appearances in the NCAA Tournament and earned one invite to the WNIT with Flanery on the sidelines as an assistant.

During his tenure as an assistant at Creighton, the Jays produced 20 all-Missouri Valley Conference athletes, including two Most Valuable Players - Carrie Welle (1997) and Christy Neneman (2002). The Jays also produced two freshmen of the year, two newcomers of the year and one defensive player of the year during that 10-year span.

Flanery, 40, is originally from Guthrie Center, Iowa, where he starred on the basketball, baseball and golf teams at Guthrie Center High School from 1979 to 1983.

Tanya Warren

Associate Head Coach • Second Season

Creighton, 1988

Creighton Hall of Famer Tanya Warren is in her second season as the associate head coach at her alma mater. Warren, a 1988 Creighton graduate and 1996 Athletic Hall of Fame inductee, plays an integral part in recruiting as the newest member of the Bluejay basketball staff.

"Tanya has great respect from our players. She speaks in a strong voice, and they hang onto the things she says," said head coach Jim Flanery. "She's a really good teacher, and she demands a lot from our players. In turn, they start to demand more from themselves. That's pretty valuable in what we're trying to do here. Tanya has the experience and creativity to help us in recruiting, and we've already seen that in this year's freshmen class. Tanya is a competitor, and she loves Creighton. Those two things are important in getting current and future players excited about what is possible here."

Along with her on-court duties with the perimeter players at Creighton, Warren is responsible for recruiting as well as the team's academic progress, strength and conditioning and fundraising.

Warren returned to Creighton following a three-year stint at the University of Missouri where she served as an assistant coach and the program's recruiting coordinator. The Tigers made three consecutive postseason appearances in her stint at Mizzou, including a trip to the 2004 NCAA Tournament.

No stranger to the Missouri Valley Conference, Warren served as an assistant coach at the University of Northern Iowa for six seasons under former Creighton assistant coach Tony DiCecco. In Warren's final season at Northern Iowa, the Panthers advanced to the WNIT for the first national postseason appearance in the program's history. A native of Des Moines, Iowa, Warren also spent one season as an assistant coach at Iowa State in the mid-1990s.

From 1989 through 1992 Warren worked and coached at Boys Town in west Omaha. While at Boys Town she was the head girls basketball, track and volleyball coach at the high school on campus. She then served as the head basketball coach at Duchesne Academy in Omaha from 1992-94. Warren guided her Duchesne team to the first state tournament appearance in school history.

A standout guard in her playing days at Creighton (1983-88), Warren is the career leader in assists at CU with 650, while setting the CU single-season record and ranking 10th in the nation with 228 assists in 1987. Her 1,566 career points rank seventh in school history while she also ranks in the CU career top-10 in scoring average, field goals, free-throws made, free-throws attempted, free-throw percentage and steals.

She was named to the Kodak All-District V Team and the WNIT All-Tournament Team in 1987, adding 18.7 points per game along with her school record assist total that season. She was inducted into the CU Athletic Hall of Fame in 1996, one of just six women's basketball players in the Hall.

Warren graduated from Creighton in 1988 with a bachelor of science degree in social work. Her No. 10 jersey is one of only two retired numbers in CU women's basketball history.

Holly Borchers

Assistant Coach • Fourth Season
Creighton, 1997

Holly Borchers begins her fourth season as an assistant coach at her alma mater after a four-year stint as an assistant at Wright State University in Dayton, Ohio. Creighton's recruiting coordinator, Borchers also heads up Bluejay community service outings and alumni relations in addition to her work with the backcourt.

"Holly is a great worker. My head spins when I think of all the things she does," said head coach Jim Flanery. "Then, the great thing is she still has time to remind me of the things that I'm on the verge of forgetting to do. Holly relates really well to players, and they feel comfortable talking to her. She loves this program and its history too, and she's made a strong effort to get our alums and others excited about what's going on here. Holly also has a strong sense for when she needs to lower the collective stress level of our team with humor or light-heartedness, and that's pretty invaluable sometimes."

While at Wright State from 1997 through 2001, Borchers was responsible for several aspects within the program including player development, academic monitoring, recruiting, camps and community relations. With the Raiders, Borchers implemented an Adopt-a-School program that originated with the women's basketball team and eventually expanded to all WSU athletic teams. She also served as staff liaison for community service and outreach in 1998, while receiving the athletic department award for service and outreach in 1998 and 1999.

The Sioux Falls, S.D., native enjoyed a stellar career with the Bluejays from 1993-97, after being tabbed Miss South Dakota Basketball in 1992 and earning USA Today All-America honors. The former Holly Sivesind ranks among career leaders in several categories for the Jays including points scored, three-point field goals, free throws, steals and assists. She is one of 17 Bluejays with more than 1,000 career points and she ranks as the all-time free-throw accuracy leader, making 79.7 percent of her free throws at CU. The 1993-94 Missouri Valley Conference Freshman of the Year, also earned first-team all-MVC honors and all-tournament honors while playing for the Jays.

She graduated with a double major in theology and psychology in 1997. In 2002, she earned a master's degree in specialized ministry from the United Theological Seminary and a master's in mental health counseling from Wright State.

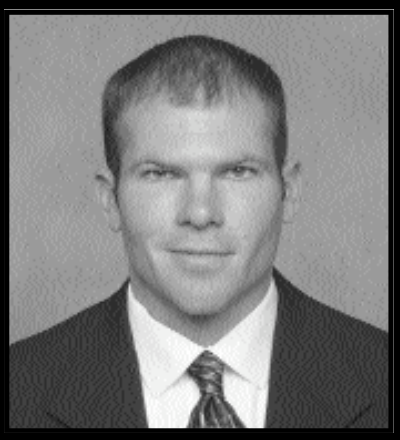

Borchers has volunteered at numerous basketball camps and youth camps, and has served on the Leadership Board for the Southwest Ohio Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

Borchers' brother, John, was Mr. Basketball of South Dakota 1996 and ended his college career as the career three-point field goals leader at Colorado State. Her father, John, played football at Kearney (Neb.) State College.

Holly and her husband, Dean, have been married five years and have a two-year-old son, Vance.

Jarrod Olson

Assistant Coach • Fourth Season

Doane College, 1997

Jarrod Olson enters his fourth season as an assistant coach on the Bluejay staff. Olson came to Creighton from the College of Saint Mary where he was named the 2001-02 Midlands Collegiate Athletic Conference Coach of the Year while serving as the head women's basketball coach at the NAIA school in Omaha. Olson works with the post players and also is responsible for camps, travel arrangements, game preparation and he plays a role in recruiting future student-athletes.

Olson spent the off-season coaching in the professional Women's National Basketball League of New Zealand. His Otago Breakers team advanced to the championship game with the help of former Bluejay standout Laura Spanheimer. He inherited a team which went 5-10 its previous season and led the team to a second-place regular-season finish at 9-3. For his leadership, he was named the WNBL Coach of the Year.

"Jarrod has a gift for cutting through the layers and getting to the core," said head coach Jim Flanery. "Whether it's a decision regarding recruiting, style of play, or who should be on the floor at the end of a game, Jarrod can help reduce things to their simplest elements and help us to make good choices. He's a clear thinker and a voice of reason, both on and off the court. Jarrod is also very efficient around the office and very approachable by both players and staff. Though mild-mannered in some ways, he is very competitive, and he effectively uses that competitiveness in conveying to our team the high expectations he has for them."

The Omaha native served as an assistant at Division II Emporia State (Kan.) University in 1997-98, when the Hornets notched a 33-1 record en route to a national runner-up finish. Olson has also worked as an assistant coach on the men's level at Bellevue (Neb.) University during the 1999-00 season and at Millard South High School in 1998-99.

Jarrod and Amy Olson

In Olson's first year at the College of Saint Mary, the Flames went 5-20. Then, in just his second season, he guided the team to a second place finish in the MCAC with a record of 18-15, earning him Coach of the Year laurels.

The 1993 all-state graduate of Millard South earned NAIA All-America status as a player at Doane College in Crete, Neb. Olson attended Doane from 1993 to 1997, where he earned a bachelor of arts degree in English/Language Arts in 1997 and a master's degree in curriculum and instruction in 1999.

Olson enjoyed a stint as a player and coach with the Queens Graduates Basketball Club in Belfast, Northern Ireland in 1998.

Olson and his wife, Amy, were married on Sept. 12, 2003 and reside in Omaha.

Jenny Burns

Graduate Manager • Second Season Creighton, 2003

Jenny Burns enters her second season as a member of the Creighton basketball staff. As the graduate manager, Burns assists with camps, film exchange, marketing and game management while she continues to pursue her master's degree in liberal studies.

A forward for the Bluejays from 1999 through 2003, Burns spent the 2003-04 season as an intern in the Creighton athletics department working with both marketing and ticketing. She also spent a semester each as a student teacher and a substitute teacher in the Bellevue, Neb., school district.

While working at Bellevue West High School, Burns coached the girl's junior varsity basketball team. She has also coached with the Crusaders summer basketball program in the Omaha area.

The Minnetonka, Minn., native was a starter on Creighton's back-to-back Missouri Valley Conference regular-season championship teams in 2001-02 and 2002-03. She was a major contributor to CU's 2002 NCAA Tournament team and 2003 WNIT Final Four squad.

Burns was twice named to the MVC scholar-athlete first-team and earned CoSIDA Academic All-District VII Second-Team accolades as a senior while graduating with a 3.96 grade point average. She led the Jays in blocked shots as a senior and finished her career ranked in the top-10 in CU career blocked shots. Despite battling injuries during her first two seasons, she ranked eighth in games played when she finished her career.

Burns earned bachelor of arts degrees in history and secondary education in December, 2003.

2006 State Farm Missouri Valley Conference Tournament March 9-12 • Hammons Student Center • Springfield, Mo.

In 2006, the State Farm Missouri Valley Conference Women's Basketball Championship will include all 10 teams for the first time in conference history. The 10-team format begins with two games on Thursday, March 9, continues with four quarterfinal games on Friday, March 10, two semifinal games on Saturday, March 11, and it concludes with the championship on Sunday, March 12. In 2006, the women's NCAA Tournament selection show will air on ESPN on Monday, March 13, which gave the conference flexibility in moving the MVC championship game from Saturday to Sunday.

"For a lot of reasons, this is the right thing to do," said Valley Commissioner Doug Elgin. "Our women's basketball championship has set a standard for others to follow, and having all 10 institutions take part will only enhance the tournament experience."

Moving the title game from Saturday to Sunday is significant in that more of the league's tournament games will take place on the weekend. Previously, the tournament ended on Saturday with four games on Thursday, two on Friday and the final on Saturday. The new format allows for four games Friday, two on Saturday and the final on Sunday.

The MVC expanded its men's basketball championship from eight to 10 teams in 1997. The conference conducts its men's basketball championship at a neutral site (Savvis Center in St. Louis), while the women's championship has been at campus sites, including three different sites in the past three years (Drake-2003; Missouri State-2004; Illinois State-2005).

"The move from eight to 10 teams parallels in some ways to our decision to expand the men's tournament field," said Elgin. "Our institutions can market the tournament year-round, knowing their team will be at the season-ending tournament with an opportunity to play for an NCAA automatic bid."

The league conducted its first postseason women's basketball tournament in 1983 (as the Gateway Conference), and the format change represents the first change in the women's format since 1995. The 1993 season brought about change for the postseason tournament in several ways. That year was the first season women's basketball competed under the MVC umbrella, and an eight-team tournament format was reintroduced. The league tournament format underwent changes in each of the first three MVC years. In 1993, eight teams qualified and played at the highest seeds. In 1994, eight teams qualified, first-round games were at the higher seeds, but the semifinals and finals went to a single site (Springfield, Mo.). In 1995, the eight team tournament went to a pre-determined single site. In the 11 years since the league has utilized that format, MSU has hosted seven times, Drake has hosted three times (1996, 1999, 2003), and Illinois State hosted last season.

The Creighton women's basketball team has qualified for The Valley tournament every year since joining the league for the 1992-93 season. The Jays clinched their first and only MVC tournament championship with three wins in Springfield, Mo., in 2002. Creighton defeated Indiana State and Evansville en route to the championship game match up with Drake. The Bluejays, led by a 39-point performance from Christy Neneman, held on for a 77-74 victory over the Bulldogs to earn their third NCAA tournament berth in school history.

The Bluejays have lost in the quarterfinals six times (2005, 2004, 2001, 2000, 1997 and 1995), and have bowed out in the semifinals four times (2003, 1998, 1996, 1993). Creighton made it to the MVC championship game in 1999 — joining Wichita State (in 1997) as the only No. 7 seeds to reach the title game — losing to No. 4 Evansville in an overtime thriller, 75-72. CU also reached the MVC Tournament championship game in 1994, losing to Missouri State, 88-71.

This season the State Farm MVC Tournament will be hosted by Missouri State University in Springfield, Mo. For the first time since 2000, both semifinal contests will be televised, in addition to the championship game broadcast. The three tournament games will all be carried live on FSN Midwest, Fox College Sports, Comcast SportsNet Chicago and Metro Sports in Kansas City.

The spectacular rise of the Missouri Valley Conference continued in 2004-05, and all signs point toward an ongoing resurgence for the nation's second-oldest NCAA Division I conference.

One year shy of its centennial celebration, the Missouri Valley Conference emphasizes the importance of the student-athlete and is aggressive in its approach to provide opportunities for its member institutions. Since its inception in 1907, the Missouri Valley Conference has been regarded as a leader by its peers among today's collegiate athletic conferences.

While the Valley took center stage by hosting the NCAA Final Four in St. Louis in 2005, the overall performance of league teams in virtually every sport continues to raise the national profile of the conference.

Most noteworthy in 2004-05 was the success in the sport of men's basketball. For an amazing seventh consecutive season, the Valley earned multiple berths in the NCAA Tournament. And for only the third time in league history - and the first since 1999 - three conference teams qualified for the Big Dance. Two others qualified for the NIT, marking the first time in Valley history that five men's basketball teams qualified for post-season play.

Led by Wichita State's regular-season and tournament championship and first-ever NCAA Tournament appearance, four Valley volleyball schools won 20 or more matches for the first time since 1996. The Shockers swept their first-round opponent (Nevada) in the NCAA Tournament.

Based in St. Louis since 1985, the league is assertive in its approach to hosting NCAA basketball championship events, operating a revenue-producing in-house television network, bidding out the right to play host to sport championships and landing title sponsorships for those events.

The success of the Valley television package is one of the great stories in the league, in terms of the clearance of the men's basketball tournament title game on national broadcast television, the excellent national and regional coverage for basketball and other sports, and the effective sale of advertising content to a more than 25 companies. The MVC Television Network has blossomed into a revenue-generating vehicle and the Valley's most visible marketing tool.

During the tenure of Doug Elgin, the Valley's ninth commissioner, the Valley has been aggressive in hosting NCAA events in St. Louis. That role came to a spectacular climax in April 2005 as the conference collaborated with local partners to stage the Final Four at the Edward Jones Dome.

This continuing involvement of the MVC in hosting NCAA events represents one of the most concentrated stretches of host opportunities for any university or conference in the 67-year history of the national championship tournament. The 2005 host opportunity was the sixth in eight years for the MVC in St. Louis. The league had previously hosted men's regionals in 1998, 1999, and in 2004; a men's first/second round event in 2002 and the Women's Final Four in 2001. The Valley will host a men's basketball regional in 2007 and a Women's Final Four in 2009. Additionally, Creighton and the Valley will co-host a men's basketball first and second round in 2008 in Omaha.

And while the Missouri Valley Conference has been progressive in pursuing NCAA events, it has continued to be a national leader in the athletic arena. The oldest Division I athletic conference west of the Mississippi River, the Valley has had numerous successes in its storied history, which includes a myriad of accomplishments since the turn of the century.

The seeds for this vision were planted by eight administrators representing five institutions, who met at the Midland Hotel in Kansas City, Mo., on Jan. 12, 1907. The five schools which formed the Missouri Valley Intercollegiate Athletic Association were Washington University of St. Louis, and the state universities of Iowa, Kansas, Missouri and Nebraska. Two months after the initial meeting, two more schools -- Drake University and Iowa State College -- were admitted.

In the fall of 1907, basketball became the first competitive sport. Today, the Missouri Valley Conference sponsors the following sports: baseball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country and track & field (indoor and outdoor), men's and women's golf, men's and women's soccer, softball, women's swimming and diving, men's and women's tennis, and women's volleyball.

Athletic accomplishments on the men's athletics side include four national basketball championships, 17 trips to the NCAA Final Four, and a 1989 national baseball championship. In 2001, Missouri State added to the Valley women's accomplishments, as the Lady Bears advanced to the Women's Basketball Final Four in St. Louis. Creighton (2004) and MSU (2005) have claimed national championships (WNIT) in women's basketball, while MSU also has a 1992 NCAA Women's Final Four appearance, and Creighton (2003) and Drake (1999) have made semifinal trips to the WNIT postseason tournament.

From its early beginning to its current standing on the map of college athletics, The Valley will always continue to be proactive in its approach.

League members include Bradley University, Creighton University, Drake University, the University of Evansville, Illinois State University, Indiana State University, Missouri State University, the University of Northern Iowa, Southern Illinois University and Wichita State University. Affiliate men's soccer members include Eastern Illinois University, Vanderbilt University, and Western Kentucky University.

The Bluejays advanced to the NCAA post-season for the fourth consecutive year while accepting their third straight bid into the Women's National Invitation Tournament. Another successful season came to an end with a 19-10 overall record, while the Jays tied for second in the Missouri Valley Conference with a 13-5 record.

Senior Laura Spanheimer ended her record-setting Bluejay career as the only player in school history to record 1,500 points, 600 rebounds, 500 field goals, 300 assists, 300 steals and 200 three-point field goals. Her 369 career steals far surpassed the former CU record, while also establishing a MVC record. She also finished in the CU career top-10 in games played (2nd), three point field goals (3rd), points scored (6th), field goals (7th), three-point field goal percentage (7th), assists (8th), blocked shots (8th), rebounds (9th) and scoring average (10th).

Spanheimer was named the Prairie Farms MVC Scholar-Athlete of the Year, while also being honored on the MVC Scholar-Athlete First Team for the third straight season. She also earned CoSIDA Academic All-District Second Team accolades and was named to the I-AAA Athletic Directors Scholar-Athlete Team for the second straight year. The Omaha native became the first player in league history to earn all-defensive team honors in four seasons and was named to the MVC First-Team for the second time.

Junior Angie Janis had a breakout season, leading the Bluejays with 19.1 points and 7.7 rebounds per game. She joined Spanheimer as a first-team all-MVC and first-team scholar-athlete honoree. The forward became just the sixth player in school history to score 500 points and record 200 rebounds in the same season. She led the MVC with 19.9 points per conference game and finished ranked 24th in the NCAA in scoring. Her eight double-doubles led the team, as she reached double figure scoring totals in all but two games, including 14 20-point games. She also became the 17th member of the 1,000 career point club at CU.

Seniors Jen Rochelle and Codi Walker joined Spanheimer in concluding their careers. Walker ended her four-year run as a Bluejay playing in 126 games, more than any player in school history. Both players enjoyed their finest individual seasons in their final campaign. Junior Kristi Woodard also enjoyed a career-year, averaging 13.3 points and 5.0 rebounds per game.

The Bluejays continued to rank among the best in the NCAA in several statistical categories while also establishing school records. They set a CU record for free-throw accuracy by making 75.3 percent of their attempts. The Jays also set a school record by blocking 130 shots on the season. CU ranked in the NCAA top-25 in free-throw percentage (16th), fewest turnovers per game (20th), three-point field goals made per game (21st) and points per game (22nd). Spanheimer ranked ninth in the NCAA in steals per game, swiping 99 in 29 games.

The Bluejays opened the season with back-to-back home wins over Northwestern and UMKC. CU set a school record by attempting 37 three-point field goals in the season-opener, led by Woodard's 6-for-10 night from long range.

The Jays lost their road opener at Houston, and returned home to battle 18th-ranked Minnesota. The Golden Gophers held on for an eight point win over the Jays.

CU then put together exciting road wins at Oregon State and Colorado. With their three leading scorers fouling out, the Bluejays needed a late lay-up by Amy Hoffman to come away with a one-point win at OSU. Spanheimer managed a career-high 31 points in just 31 minutes of play, while Hoffman's career-high six blocked shots were also key. The Jays then cruised to a 16-point win at Colorado, behind Janis' double-double and five more blocked shots by Hoffman.

A heart-breaking overtime loss to Iowa at the Civic Auditorium followed. The Jays wasted a 15-point second-half lead and the Hawkeyes moved to 8-0 by shooting 70 percent in the second half. The team rebounded and went on to log its longest winning streak during the Jim Flanery era. CU topped in-state rival Nebraska by one point and knocked off Kansas to go 3-0 against the Big 12 and conclude non-conference play.

The winning streak continued into Valley play, as the Jays got off to their best conference start since 1993-94. CU opened MVC play with an 85-63 win at Southern Illinois on New Year's Eve. Janis, Spanheimer and Woodard became the first trio of Bluejays to each score 20 points in one game since 1991 in the win at SIU.

The 6-0 league start also included three straight home wins by three points or less. The Jays topped Indiana State and Drake by three, while needing overtime to get a one-point win over Illinois State.

Missouri State snapped the Bluejays' win streak in Springfield on Jan. 23. The defeat on the court was not the only loss CU suffered at MSU, as junior forward Christy Erickson was lost for the season with a torn right ACL. At the time of her injury, the forward led the MVC in three-point accuracy and topped the team in assists. CU would go 7-6 the rest of the season without her, after starting 12-4.

CU returned home to capture another exciting overtime win over Northern Iowa. Janis' shot at the buzzer sent the game to extra time, where she then went 8-for-8 from the free-throw line the final 74 seconds of the game to ice the 78-73 victory.

Codi Walker ended her career as the all-time games played leader in CU history.

CU went 8-1 through the first half of MVC play, but sputtered to a 5-4 mark down the stretch. The Jays' offense struggled in lopsided losses to Drake and Missouri State. The Jays played in a record fourth overtime contest and their first double overtime game since 1997 to conclude the regular-season against Evansville. Spanheimer and Janis both recorded double-doubles in the come-from-behind win against the Purple Aces on Senior Day.

The Jays earned the third seed for the 2005 State Farm MVC Tournament, held on the campus of Illinois State University. For the second straight season, the Bluejays were upset in the quarterfinals of the tourney, falling to sixth-seeded Drake. The hosts and eighth-seeded Redbirds became the first eighth-seed to win the tournament and represented the Valley in the NCAA tournament.

A third straight trip to the WNIT awaited the Bluejays, searching for their fourth consecutive 20-win season. But once again, late-season offensive struggles hurt the Bluejays and they lost at Iowa in the first round of the WNIT to end their season. However Missouri State followed Creighton's 2004 WNIT Championship by claiming the tournament crown for the MVC again.

Breaking through for the Bluejays and showing promise for the future were CU freshmen Ally Thrall and Sara Cain. Thrall started 16 of 29 games for the Bluejays as a rookie at guard. Cain, a 6-foot-1 forward, proved her defensive worth and offensive potential late in the year, while playing in all 29 contests.

November 19, 2004

Omaha Civic Auditorium • Omaha, Neb.

The Bluejays opened the season with a victory for the first time since 2000-01, also the last time they opened play at home. Laura Spanheimer led the way, opening her senior season with the fifth double-double of her career. She tied for team-high honors with 20 points and 10 rebounds, while also leading the Jays with seven assists, six steals and two blocked shots. The game started slowly and went back and forth with seven lead changes in the first 10 minutes of play before an Angie Janis free-throw gave CU an 18-17 lead it would not surrender. CU built a 44-31 halftime lead behind hot shooting from three-point range. The Jays made 9-of-19 treys in the first half and set a school record by attempting 37 trifectas in the win. Kristi Woodard set career highs for three-point makes (6) and attempts (10), while recording her fourth career 20-point night. Janis finished with 19 points, while Christy Erickson pulled down a career-high 10 rebounds. The Jays grabbed 25 offensive rebounds and out-worked NU 51-41 on the glass.

November 22, 2004

Omaha Civic Auditorium • Omaha, Neb.

Kristi Woodard scored 18 points while Angie Janis and Codi Walker each poured in 16 as CU cruised to an 84-64 triumph over UMKC. A tight first half was blown open when CU ended the half on a 15-3 run to carry a 47-35 lead into the locker room. The Jays pushed their lead to 20 points when Christy Erickson and Walker buried three baskets, including two three-pointers to open the second half. CU's largest lead of the night came when Deanna Castro scored the first points of her collegiate career to extend the lead to 84-57 with just over a minute to play. The Jays continued to launch three-point field goals, making 13-of-34 in the win, led by Woodard's 4-of-8 shooting from three-point range. Woodard set a career-best with six assists, while Walker also added a career-high seven helpers. All 14 Bluejays saw playing time in head coach Jim Flanery's 50th career victory.

Houston 80

November 24, 2004

Hofheinz Pavilion • Houston, Texas

All-America candidate Sancho Lyttle torched the Bluejays for 34 points and 18 rebounds as the Lady Cougars handed Creighton its first loss of the season. The Jays came out of the gates cold, making 1-of-9 three-pointers in the first half, while shooting just 33 percent overall in the opening 20 minutes. UH's starting lineup included three players measuring 6-foot-2 or better, and it dominated CU on the boards, including a 31-11 edge at halftime. The Cougars' Kiki Harris also recorded a double-double with 16 points and 11 boards. Angie Janis scored all 20 of her points in the second half, helping CU out-score UH 42-41 in the half. Christy Erickson netted 10 points in the loss.

Game 4

#18 Minnesota 79
Creighton 71

November 28, 2004

Omaha Civic Auditorium • Omaha, Neb.

Minnesota's Liz Podominick scored a career-high 20 points to lead the 18th-ranked Golden Gophers past Creighton. The Bluejays, who had averaged 33 three-point field goal attempts and more than 11 trifectas made per game through three contests, were held to just one three-point field goal on four attempts. UM's smothering perimeter defense frustrated CU, as the Gophers used two separate 11-point runs in the first-half to build their lead. The Jays shot just 31 percent in the first half, but made the halftime adjustment to put the ball on the floor and drive around their defenders in the second half. CU had its best shooting half in two seasons, making nearly 62 percent of its shots in the second half, but it wasn't enough to overcome the large halftime deficit. The one three-point make equalled CU's lowest total since Dec. 30, 2000 and its four attempts were its fewest since attempting four treys on Nov. 17, 2000. The loss marked just CU's fourth defeat at home in four seasons (38-4), three coming to nationally-ranked opponents. Angie Janis led the Jays with 19 points and seven boards. UM's All-American Janel McCarville had 14 points, nine rebounds, seven assists and two blocked shots.

Creighton 76
Oregon State 75

December 2, 2004

Gill Coliseum • Corvallis, Ore.

Laura Spanheimer's career-high 31 points along with Amy Hoffman's clutch defense (career-high six blocked shots) and game-winning shot gave the Jays a road victory. CU overcame their top three players fouling out and playing nearly the entire game in foul trouble to escape with the win. Hoffman's only field goal of the night was the biggest CU bucket of the game as Christy Erickson found the center cutting to the basket on a baseline inbound play. Hoffman leaped to snag the ball and banked her lay-up off the glass to give CU a 76-75 edge with just under 20 seconds to play. The Beavers had several chances to win it in the closing seconds, but could not get a shot to fall. OSU missed two shots inside of 10 seconds, then missed two free throws with 2.9 seconds to play and followed the freebies with another missed jumper.

Game 6

Creighton 84
Colorado 68

December 4, 2004

Coors Event Center • Boulder, Colo.

Angie Janis scored 22 points and added 13 rebounds to pace the Jays in a romp over Colorado. She logged a double-double just 13 minutes into the game, finishing the first-half with 12 points and 10 boards. CU's lead swelled to 15 points in the first half, up 33-18, but the Buffaloes closed the half on a 14-3 run to pull within four. After the Buffs hit the first shot of the second half, the Jays scored the next 12 points of the game to go up 48-34. Colorado responded with a 16-4 spurt of its own to close within two again. The Jays lead remained in single digits over the next nine minutes, but the Buffs could not get closer than two points, and the Jays closed the game on a 12-4 run. Christy Erickson scored 12 points and Amy Hoffman blocked five shots in the win. Laura Spanheimer added 20 points to move into 10th place on the CU career scoring list.

Game 7

Iowa 91
Creighton 82

December 10, 2004

Omaha Civic Auditorium • Omaha, Neb.

Laura Spanheimer broke the Creighton career steals record and scored 29 points, but Iowa shot over 70 percent from the field in the second half to send the game to overtime and hand CU two home losses in a season for the first time since 2000-01. CU led 44-31 at the half, making 8-of-9 three-pointers and seven straight from long range in the first half. The Hawkeyes were unstoppable in the second half, and CU's shots stopped falling. Iowa's fast-breaks and points in the paint tore through CU's defense after halftime, as it finished the game with 58 points in the paint and 18 fast-break points. CU led by 15 in the second half, but lost the lead and Spanheimer's two free-throws with 25 seconds remaining sent the game to overtime. Spanheimer's five steals gave her 294 in her career, breaking the former CU mark (292). Kristi Woodard had a career-high 11 rebounds and her first career double-double, while Ally Thrall poured in 12 points against her home-state team.

Game 8

Nebraska 57
Creighton 58

December 18, 2004

Omaha Civic Auditorium • Omaha, Neb.

The Bluejays withstood a late Husker surge to hold on for their second one-point victory of the season. The Jays went up 58-51 with just under three minutes to play, but did not score for the remainder of the game as NU's Kiera Hardy brought her team back into the game. Hardy scored the game's final six points and her team's final 11, but it was her turnover on a traveling call with 1.5 seconds to play which prevented the Huskers from attempting a game-winning shot. The Jays led at the half, 24-21, after closing on an 8-0 run to take the lead. CU's largest lead was 10 points early in the second half. Laura Spanheimer led the Jays with 21 points and five steals, while playing the entire game. Angie Janis and Kristi Woodard both had double-doubles for CU, Woodard's second straight double-dime. Christy Erickson added 10 rebounds and eight points, to join the aforementioned trio as the only four Jays to score in the win. The Jays dominated the glass to a 48-37 advantage, including an 18-9 edge on the offensive boards. Rookie Ally Thrall made her first career start in the win and Amy Hoffman made her first start of the season.

Game 9

Kansas 63
Creighton 68

December 21, 2004

Omaha Civic Auditorium • Omaha, Neb.

For the second straight game, the Bluejays held off a comeback attempt by a Big 12 opponent and earned a narrow win. The Jays led by nine in the first half, before a late Jayhawk run cut the halftime score to 34-32. KU tied the game with the first shot of the second half, but CU went on a 13-0 run to take control of the game. The Jays led by as many as 14 before KU pushed back within five, but CU's free-throw shooting helped keep the lead. Both teams made 23 field goals and four three-pointers, but the Jays shot 18-of-19 from the line to earn the five-point victory. Angie Janis led all players with 24 points, sinking 10 field goals. Kristi Woodard led the Bluejays with nine rebounds, adding 16 points with a perfect 7-of-7 night at the free-throw line. Laura Spanheimer became the sixth player in MVC history to surpass 300 career steals, adding 18 points. The senior also played in her third straight "complete game". The win was the fifth straight for the Bluejays over the Jayhawks and helped Creighton move to 3-0 against the Big 12 this season.

Creighton 85
Southern Illinois 63

December 31, 2004
SIU Arena • Carbondale, Ill.

For the first time in 13 years, three Creighton players scored at least 20 points in one game as the Bluejays opened MVC play with a 22-point romp over the Salukis. Angie Janis (22), Kristi Woodard (21) and Laura Spanheimer (20) each reached 20 points in the win, becoming the first trio to do so since Dec. 30, 1991. The Jays held a seven-point lead at the break before scoring the first 10 points of the second half and moving to their largest lead of the game, up 63-39 with over 10 minutes remaining. CU's trio equaled the output of the entire SIU team, as the Jays shot 52.1 percent from the field. Jen Rochelle came off the bench to add eight points on 3-of-3 shooting from the field and 2-of-2 from the charity stripe. The Jays swiped 12 steals, led by a season-high three from Janis. Woodard set career-highs for field goal makes (10) and attempts (23).

January 2, 2005
Roberts Stadium • Evansville, Ind.

The Bluejays scored a season-high 91 points and shot better than 50 percent for the second straight game as they cruised to a 16-point win on the road to open MVC play 2-0 for the fourth straight season. The Jays trailed by six in the first half, but closed on an 8-0 run and held UE scoreless for the final five minutes of the half. CU owned a two-point lead at half, but opened on a 13-5 run in the second half and owned a double-digit lead for the final 11 minutes of play. Angie Janis led all players with 21 points and 11 rebounds for her 10th career double-double. Christy Erickson scored a career-high 13 points, with a perfect shooting night from the field. Laura Spanheimer scored 19 points and led the team with six assists, while Kristi Woodard added 16 points and 9 rebounds. Codi Walker added eight points off the bench, while Ally Thrall added four assists.

Game 12

Indiana State 72
Creighton 75

January 6, 2005
Omaha Civic Auditorium • Omaha, Neb.

The Bluejays held off the surging Sycamores for their fifth straight win. CU led 70-62 with over five minutes to play, but did not make a field goal in the final five minutes of the game while ISU cut CU's lead to two, twice in the closing minute. The Jays were up by 14 in the first half, 30-16, but the Sycamores forced 14 first-half CU turnovers to take a 41-40 lead into half-time. The Jays and Sycamores exchanged the lead three times in the second half, and ISU missed a three-pointer at the final buzzer. ISU out-scored the Jays in the paint 44-18, but CU made seven of its first nine three-point attempts and shot 52.4 percent from long-range in the win. Angie Janis logged her second straight double-double with 22 points and 14 rebounds. Laura Spanheimer added 22 points on 5-of-8 shooting from beyond the arc. Kristi Woodard made 4-of-9 trifectas and finished with 16 points in the win. The NCAA leader in steals entering the game, Melanie Boeglin filled up the stat sheet with 22 points, eight assists, five rebounds and five steals.

Illinois State 78
Creighton 79

January 8, 2005

Omaha Civic Auditorium • Omaha, Neb.

Creighton came-from-behind to post its first overtime win of the season, topping the Redbirds by one point. ISU led by 10 in the second half and was up by nine, 57-48, with 11 minutes to play but the Bluejays scored the game's next nine points to pull even with 8:07 remaining. A 14-2 run by CU gave the Jays their largest lead of the half, 62-59 with 5:53 to play. The lead changed hands four more times before the end of regulation, and it was Holly Hallstrom's lay-up with 33 seconds to play which tied the game 69-69. Codi Walker scored six of her 12 points in overtime to help the Jays to their third one-point win of the season. CU's "big three" of Angie Janis, Laura Spanheimer and Kristi Woodard combined for 55 points, but shot just 17-of-57 (.298) from the field. The Jays forced 22 ISU turnovers (CU committed only seven), paced by seven steals from Spanheimer. Christy Erickson and Spanheimer tied for game-high honors with eight assists, accounting for all 16 Bluejay assists.

Omaha Civic Auditorium • Omaha, Neb.

The Bluejays won their seventh straight game with another come-from-behind effort, improving to 5-0 in MVC play for the first time since 1993-94. The Bulldogs took their largest lead of the game 70-63, with 3:40 to play, before the Jays responded by scoring the game's next seven points, capped by Laura Spanheimer's only three-pointer of the game with 1:24 to play. Codi Walker's three-point basket with 39 seconds to play gave the Jays a 73-72 lead. Angie Janis blocked a Jill Martin shot attempt with eight seconds to play and Kristi Woodard's fast-break layup sealed the CU win. Woodard tied a season-high with 21 points, while Janis added 18 and led the team with eight rebounds. Walker added 13 points off the bench, while Spanheimer dished eight assists for the second straight game. DU's freshman Lindsay Whorton led all players with a career-high 26 points, making 6-of-9 three-point shots for the Bulldogs. The tight game saw 10 ties and six lead changes and it was CU's third straight win by three points or less, moving the Jays to 6-0 on the season in games decided by five or fewer points.

Wichita State 59

January 21, 2005

Charles Koch Arena • Wichita, Kan.

Angie Janis pulled down a career-high 15 rebounds and led the team with 21 points as the Bluejays won their eighth consecutive game. With the game tied at 46 with 11:41 to play, the Bluejays rattled off the game's next 12 points and didn't look back. The Jays were aided by 30 Shocker turnovers, while swiping a season-high 20 steals in the win. Laura Spanheimer logged seven steals for the second time in three games to lead the way, while Christy Erickson, Ally Thrall and Codi Walker each had three steals in the win. Janis' double-double was her team-best fifth of the season and 12th of her career and the game marked the sixth time in seven games she topped the 20-point mark. Joining Janis in double figures was Spanheimer (14), Woodard (12) and Walker (10). It marked just the second time in Walker's career she scored double figures in three straight games. The eight-game winning streak is the longest in Jim Flanery's tenure.

Creighton 51
Missouri State 66

January 23, 2005

Hammons Student Center • Springfield, Mo.

Creighton's cold second-half shooting led to just 51 total points as the Lady Bears snapped the Jays' eight-game winning streak and handed CU its first conference loss of the season. The Jays made just six field goals and shot 22.2 percent from the floor in the second half, after owning a 33-27 lead at halftime. Missouri State scored the first seven points of the second half and an 11-2 Lady Bear run in a 90-second span midway through the half helped MSU take over first place in the MVC. CU's struggles were a result of Angie Janis playing with foul trouble and fouling out with 4:47 to play. Christy Erickson's absence was also noticeable, after her season-ending knee injury in the first half limited the forward to just seven minutes. Janis led CU with 14 points, while Kristi Woodard had 11 points and a team-high seven boards. Kari Koch, 2004 MVC Player of the Year, led all players with 19 points, while Jenni Lingor added 17 for Missouri State. The loss was CU's fourth consecutive to MSU.

Game 17

Northern Iowa 73
Creighton 78

January 27, 2005

Omaha Civic Auditorium • Omaha, Neb.

Angie Janis tied her career-high with 26 points, hit a buzzer-beater to send the game to overtime and went 8-for-8 at the free-throw line in the final 74 seconds of the game to help CU to an unlikely come-from-behind win. The Jays trailed 61-57 with seven seconds left in regulation, when Laura Spanheimer went the length of the court to make a layup with 2.1 seconds to play. UNI's Alex Cook then tossed the ensuing inbound pass off the backside of the backboard, to give CU a chance to tie. Ally Thrall found Janis open on the baseline and the junior hit a 17-foot jumper as time expired to send the game to OT. UNI went up 67-63 in overtime, but the Jays were a perfect 11-for-11 from the line in extra time. A technical foul on the Panther bench with nine seconds left in OT helped the Jays move from a 74-73 lead, to the five-point win. Janis made a career-high 14-of-15 shots at the line and added 11 rebounds for her sixth double-double of the season. Senior Jen Rochelle made her first career start in the place of an injured Christy Erickson.

Bradley 71
Creighton 89

January 30, 2005

Omaha Civic Auditorium • Omaha, Neb.

Laura Spanheimer scored 26 points and added six assists, five rebounds and five steals to help CU cruise past Bradley. The senior made all four of her three-point attempts in the win. The Jays led 38-31 at halftime and the Braves cut the lead to five points just a minute in to the second half. CU then went on a 20-5 run, keyed by three Spanheimer three-pointers. The Jays' largest lead of the game was 21 points, as all 13 healthy Bluejays played at least two minutes in the blowout. Jen Rochelle (9), Sara Cain (8) and Tyrai Bronson (7) each scored career highs for the Jays. The points for Bronson were the first of her career, all coming in the final two minutes. CU shot a season-high 54.1 percent from the field in the win.

Creighton 76
Indiana State 79

February 4, 2005

Hulman Center • Terre Haute, Ind.

A season-high 22 turnovers by the Bluejays led to their second MVC loss of the season. The Jays led by as many as seven, 18-11, in the first half and owned the halftime lead, 35-32, but could not protect the ball. The Sycamores scored the first seven points of the second half and used a 12-2 run to open the half and gain control of the game. CU shot 48.3 percent from the field in the first half and limited ISU to just 31.3 percent, but those trends were reversed in the second half. CU went down to 37.8 percent after half time and ISU heated up to shoot 51.7 percent in the second stanza. Angie Janis led all players with 23 points, but ISU's Ashley Clark recorded a double-double with 20 points and 10 rebounds. Melanie Boeglin also had a double-dime for ISU with 13 points and 10 assists. The Jays were out-scored at the free-throw line 23-5, while the Sycamores shot 24 more freebies than CU. Laura Spanheimer added 14 points and Codi Walker chipped in 12 off the bench.

February 6, 2005

Redbird Arena • Normal, Ill.

Freshmen Sara Cain and Ally Thrall had career days and helped CU past the Redbirds. Cain had a game-high and career-best nine rebounds, while Thrall went 5-of-7 from the field for a career-high 13 points. CU was able to shut down the ISU offense, limiting the Redbirds to just 28 first-half points and 28 percent 3FG shooting for the game. While the Jays shot over 50 percent for the fifth time this season, ISU shot a lowly 32.4 percent from the field. Angie Janis led all players with 22 points, despite picking up four first-half fouls. Kristi Woodard regained her shooting touch, making two threes and 6-of-9 shots from the field for 14 points. Codi Walker added 12 points and led the team with four assists off the bench. Walker also set a career-high with seven free-throws as part of her perfect 7-of-7 game at the line.

Game 21

Creighton 57
Drake 74

February 13, 2005

Knapp Center • Des Moines, Iowa

Creighton suffered its worst MVC loss in nearly four years at the hands of the Bulldogs. The Bluejays made just three of their first 14 shots on the day and shot only 30 percent in the first half, before trailing by 16 at halftime. The Jays trailed 41-23 before putting together a 21-8 run to cut the DU lead to only five points, 49-44. CU got no closer, as Drake went up by as many as 23 in the romp. Angie Janis and Laura Spanheimer combined for just eight points. Janis was held under double digits for the first time all season, pouring in eight second-half points. Spanheimer was held scoreless on six shots from the field. It marked just the third time in her career she'd been held without a point, the second occurrence at the Knapp Center. DU freshman Brandy Dahir scored a career-high 24 points to lead all players. Codi Walker tied a season-high to lead CU with 16 points.

Game 23

Missouri State 65
Creighton 48

February 20, 2005

Omaha Civic Auditorium • Omaha, Neb.

The Bluejays were held to just 48 points, while shooting only 30.3 percent from the field in their worst home loss since 2000. The Jays and Lady Bears played close through the first half, with CU trailing by three with 6:13 to play. A 10-0 run by MSU helped the Lady Bears gain control of the game and carry a 41-31 lead into halftime. After the break, the Jays made just 6-of-34 shots from the floor, including a dismal 0-for-11 effort from three-point range. Jenni Lingor and Kari Koch led MSU with 16 points each, while no CU player scored in double figures. Angie Janis and Kristi Woodard scored eight points each in the 17-point CU loss. Laura Spanheimer scored seven points while shooting just 1-for-10 from three-point range, adding a team-high seven rebounds and five steals. The loss snapped an eight-game home winning streak and marked CU's first MVC home loss of the year. CU's 48 points marked its lowest home point total since a 69-47 loss to Missouri on Dec. 13, 1996.

February 26, 2005
West Gym • Cedar Falls, Iowa

Angie Janis scored a career-high 27 points and surpassed 1,000 career points, but the Jays dropped from second to fourth place with a loss at UNI. The league's top defense limited Creighton to just 17 points in the first half, tying its lowest point total in a half this season. The Jays attempted a late-game surge and closed within five points, but could not overcome their slow start. The Panthers led 30-17 at the half, limiting Janis to four points, while the Jays shot just 29.6 percent in the opening half. Janis' 23 second-half points spurred a CU comeback attempt, as the Jays shot 48.5 percent after the half. CU trailed by five, 58-53, with just under two minutes to play and again with 34 seconds remaining, but could get no closer in the loss. While Janis excelled, Kristi Woodard and Laura Spanheimer combined for nine points on 3-of-16 shooting from the field. Codi Walker had 14 points and Ally Thrall added a career-high four steals and her first career blocked shot.

March 3, 2005
Omaha Civic Auditorium • Omaha, Neb.

For the second straight game, Angie Janis scored a career-high, this time helping lead CU to a 20-point victory over SIU. Janis poured in 28 points, making 11-of-19 shots from the field. The last-place Salukis gave the Jays more than they wanted in the game. CU blazed out to a 23-10 lead just over five minutes into the game, hitting 10 of its first 12 shots. But the Jays scored just 14 points over the final 14 minutes of the half, making just 4-of-18 field goal attempts, while squandering their lead. SIU took a brief lead late in the half, before CU held a slim 37-36 margin at the break. SIU then scored the first five points of the second half to take a four-point lead. From that point, the Jays out-scored SIU 41-17 to close the game. The Jays out-rebounded the Salukis 27-11 in the second half to aid in the blowout. Janis, Amy Hoffman and Sara Cain each had seven rebounds to lead the Jays. Laura Spanheimer added 17 points and three steals, while Codi Walker topped the team with four assists.

Evansville 65
Creighton 72

March 5, 2005
Omaha Civic Auditorium • Omaha, Neb.

Creighton's first double overtime game since 1997 ended with a come-from-behind Bluejay victory on Senior Day. The Jays trailed by nine with 8:24 left in regulation, but went on a 12-3 run to end the game and send it to overtime, tied at 51. Both offenses continued game-long struggles in the first overtime, scoring only five points each. Angie Janis' five-point surge in the first 40 seconds of the second overtime gave CU momentum and carried them to victory. The Jays shot a season-low 24.7 percent for the game, and allowed an Evansville record 67 rebounds in the game, but found a way to win for seniors Jen Rochelle, Laura Spanheimer and Codi Walker. Walker led the Jays with 16 points, five assists and a career-high three blocked shots, while draining a career-best 8-of-10 free-throws. Both Janis and Spanheimer grabbed double-doubles with 15 points and 11 rebounds each. Sara Cain swiped a career-high five steals. Four Bluejays played better than 40 minutes in the win, as CU set a school record by playing in its fourth overtime game of the year.

MVC Tournament Quarterfinals

For the second straight season, the Bluejays were upset in the opening round of the MVC tournament, as the Jays scored a season-low 44 points in a loss to the sixth-seeded Bulldogs. For the second straight game, the Jays failed to shoot even 26 percent from the field, as CU made only four field goals in the second half. CU established season lows in points, field goals and assists in the disappointing loss. The Bluejays appeared poised for a victory, jumping out to a 20-8 lead in the game's first 11 minutes. But after that lead, the Jays scored only 24 points in the final 29 minutes of the game. Brandy Dahir led DU with 18 points and Jill Martin chipped in 17 points and 13 rebounds. Angie Janis led the team with 16 points and 10 rebounds, while Laura Spanheimer also added a double-double with 11 points and 10 boards. Spanheimer also became the MVC career leader in steals when she swiped two in the first half to move to 367 steals in her career. The Jays had five blocked shots in the game to establish a CU single-season blocks record with 128 on the year.

WNIT First Round

Creighton's third consecutive trip to the WNIT resulted in its earliest exit, as the Jays lost to Iowa for the second time during the season. The Jays came out flat, falling behind by 14 points just eight minutes into the game. Iowa went up by 15 and held a 35-21 halftime lead. CU attempted a comeback, opening the second half on a 10-2 run to cut Iowa's lead to 37-31. Iowa responded and built a 17-point lead, but CU scored 10 unanswered points to trail 56-49 with seven minutes to play. The Jays then went over six minutes without scoring, bowing out of the postseason in a 15-point loss. Kristi Woodard led CU with 19 points on 9-of-18 shooting from the field. Laura Spanheimer ended her career as the MVC all-time leader with 369 career steals. Shutout in her final game, she finished with 1,588 career points. Codi Walker ended her career as CU's all-time games played leader, appearing in her 126th contest.

28-4 Overall • 13-1 WAC (1st)

The first ever NCAA Tournament team at Creighton proved it belonged by winning its first tournament game, defeating Long Beach State in front of 3,502 fans at the Omaha Civic Auditorium. The explosive CU offense led the NCAA in both field goal (.521) and three-point field goal percentage (.452), while establishing a school-record with 80.7 points per game. Creighton Hall of Famer Kathy Halligan led five Bluejays averaging double figures with 16.0 per contest. Halligan ended her record-setting career by being named the Western Athletic Conference MVP, as CU's all-time leader with 2,159 points, 309 three-point field goals and a .454 three-point field goal percentage (including a school record .554 3FG percentage as a senior). The Jays concluded their two-year affiliation with the WAC, winning both the regular-season and tournament titles, establishing a school record 16-game winning streak (also notching a separate 12-game streak) and recording a 15-0 mark at home. Shannon Struby (first) and Melissa Sanford (second) both earned all-WAC honors, while Bruce Rasmussen was named the WAC Coach of the Year in his final year on the sidelines.

1993-94 Creighton Bluejays

24-7 Overall • 14-2 MVC (2nd)

The 1993-94 Bluejays were led by first-team all-MVC performers, sophomore Becky Flynn and senior Kris Kugel. The Jays started the season by winning 15 of their first 17 contests, including a 10-game winning streak which lasted from Dec. 30 through all of January. The Jays' 106-44 win over Delaware on Dec. 30 remains the largest margin of victory (62) in school history. Flynn registered the first triple-double in school history during the winning streak. On Jan. 11, the forward scored 13 points, grabbed 11 rebounds and registered 12 assists in a 76-54 win over Missouri. Flynn earned MVC Defensive Player of the Year honors while establishing a school record 105 steals, and Holly Sivesind was tabbed the MVC Freshman of the Year. Kugel and Jenny Olson joined Flynn in averaging double figures, while finishing one-two, respectively, in field goal percentage in the Valley. Kugel ranked sixth in the NCAA with her .632 field goal percentage. The Jays went on the road in the NCAA Tournament and defeated Bowling Green, 84-73, before ending their season with a second-round loss at Texas Tech.

24-7 Overall • 16-2 MVC (1st)

The Bluejays captured their first ever Missouri Valley Conference regular-season and tournament titles, while reaching the 20-win plateau for the first-time since 1993-94. The Jays used their three-point shooting to top opponents, ranking fifth in the NCAA in three-point field goals per game (8.0) while setting a school and MVC record with 249 threes. Sophomore Dayna Finch drained 91 three-pointers, to rank ninth in the NCAA. Fellow sophomore Christy Neneman joined Missouri State's Jackie Stiles (1999) as the only sophomores in conference history to earn Player of the Year recognition. Neneman was also tabbed the tournament MVP after scoring 39 points against Drake in the championship game. Finch and freshman Laura Spanheimer earned honorable-mention MVC honors, while Spanheimer also appeared on the all-freshman and all-defensive teams. The Jays put together a 10-game winning streak during their 16-2 run through the MVC and finished the season by winning 10 consecutive home games (9-0 MVC). Connie Yori was named the MVC Coach of the Year in her final season with the Bluejays. The Jays traveled to State College, Pa., (Penn State) to take on No. 23 Florida International as the 12th-seed in the Mideast Region. Appearing in the first NCAA tournament game since 1994, the Jays fell to the Golden Panthers, 73-58.

1986-87 Creighton Bluejays

23-7 Overall, Independent

Competing in their final year as an independent, the 1986-87 team finally garnered national recognition with their third consecutive 20-win season earning them a national postseason tournament berth. The Jays opened the year with eight consecutive victories, including wins over Nebraska, Kansas State and Kansas. Creighton Hall of Famers Pam Gradoville and Tanya Warren led the Bluejays in scoring, with Gradoville establishing a then CU single-season record 22.0 points per game (22nd in the NCAA). Warren was named to the Kodak All-District V team, averaging 18.7 points per game and dishing out a school record 228 assists to rank 10th in the NCAA. Janet Ensign set a school record with 260 rebounds. The first postseason win in school history came on March 19, 1987, when the "Lady Jays" defeated Stephen F. Austin, 76-68, at the WNIT held in Amarillo, Texas. The Jays then lost to California in the semifinals, but bounced back to defeat Providence, 91-89 in the consolation game to finish third at the tournament.

16-14 Overall • 9-9 MVC (7th)

The Bluejays were part of a record-setting season for the Missouri Valley Conference, as the league sent six women's teams to the postseason. The Bluejays finished seventh in the regular season but helped their WNIT chances by becoming the second No. 7 seed (Wichita State, 1997) to advance to the MVC Tournament Championship game. The Jays lost to Evansville, 75-72, in overtime at the tournament and then lost at Kansas State in the WNIT to end their season. CU played four ranked opponents during the season, winning at 25th-ranked Missouri State on Jan. 2. The Jays never won more than three consecutive games all season, playing in a very balanced and competitive Valley. Taya Allen earned MVC Newcomer of the Year and honorable mention recognition, while Krissie Spanheimer joined Allen on the honorable mention team. The Jays won the InnSuites Classic in Flagstaff, Ariz., by defeating New Mexico State and Northern Arizona over Christmas break.

24-9 Overall • 13-5 MVC (T-1st)

The 2002-03 Bluejays coupled with the 2001-02 squad to become the first teams in school history to make consecutive postseason tournaments, this time advancing to the WNIT Final Four. The Jays earned a share of the Missouri Valley Conference regular-season title with Indiana State, but lost in the semifinals of the MVC Tournament. The Jays dominated at home, going 13-0 in the regular season, but struggled to a 7-7 record on the road in regular-season play. When the Jays were sent to Maine for the first round of the WNIT, nothing indicated they'd be able to advance past the Black Bears. But after knocking off the Bears (the team with the most wins entering the WNIT), CU won at Siena with a 96-point output, and then traveled to Iowa where they defeated the Hawkeyes for the second time that season. CU's run came to an end in front of a Civic Auditorium record 4,439 fans, as the Jays lost to eventual WNIT champion Auburn in the semifinals. The loss ended CU's 23-game home winning streak, the second longest streak in the NCAA at the time. For the second consecutive season, the Jays set a school and MVC record for three-point field goals made with 259, ranking sixth in the NCAA with 7.8 threes per game. Christy Neneman became the third player in league history to win consecutive conference Player of the Year honors, Laura Spanheimer was honored as the MVC Defensive Player of the Year (while ranking fifth in the NCAA with a 45.8 3FG percentage) and Head Coach Jim Flanery became the winningest rookie coach in conference history.

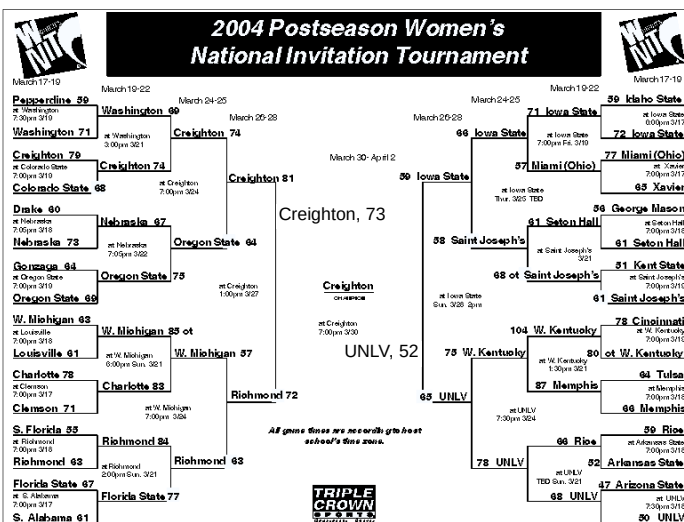

WINTER

The Bluejays continued CU's record run on the national postseason scene, appearing in their third straight WNIT. The Jays jumped out to their best start since the 1993-94 season, opening the year 12-3, while their 6-0 conference start was their best since that same 1994 squad. CU had won eight straight games after a 4-3 start, but had their longest winning streak under head coach Jim Flanery snapped at Missouri State on Jan. 23. In that game, the Jays lost starting forward Christy Erickson to injury for the rest of the season. The Bluejays were once again powerful at home, going 12-3 at the Civic. After an 8-1 run through the first half of conference play, which included four wins by five-points or less, they limped to a 5-4 Valley finish and lost in the quarterfinals of the MVC tournament for the second straight season. The Bluejays' season ended at Iowa in the first round of the WNIT. CU played close games throughout the season, setting a school record by playing in four overtime games. The team set a school record with 130 blocked shots and a 75.3 free-throw percentage. They ranked in the NCAA top 25 in free-throw percentage (16th), fewest turnovers per game (20th), three-point field goals per game (21st) and points per game (22nd). Laura Spanheimer and Angie Janis both earned first-team all-MVC and first-team academic all-MVC honors. Spanheimer was also named the MVC Scholar-Athlete of the Year and set the CU and MVC career record with 369 steals and became the first player in league history to earn all-defensive team honors four times. Janis led the team with 19.1 points per game, just the fifth CU player to average better than 19 points in a season.

Entering the 33rd season of Creighton women's basketball, the Jays have called several locations their "home court." From the early years of games at the Kiewit Fitness Center to those at the Vinardi Athletic Center to their current home at the Omaha Civic Auditorium, the Bluejays have enjoyed a great deal of success at home.

In 32 years, the Bluejays have posted a home record of 276-98 (.738), including a remarkable 48-6 (.889) over the past four seasons. This includes four undefeated seasons at home (1984-85, 1985-86, 1986-87 and 1991-92) and separate home court winning streaks of 23, 29 and 44 games.

In the 1970s, the Bluejays played their home games at the Civic Auditorium and the Kiewit Fitness Center, compiling a 30-12 mark. The Bluejays racked up 92 home victories in the 1980s, primarily playing at the Civic Auditorium and the "Old Gym." Included in those 92 home wins was a streak of 44 in a row from Feb. 4, 1984 to Feb. 24, 1987. Throughout the 1990s, the Bluejays posted a 93-35 mark (.727).

In 1992, the Bluejays hosted Long Beach State in the first round of the NCAA Tournament and defeated the 49ers, 79-66, before a crowd of 3,502 at the Civic Auditorium. With the recent attendance increase at Bluejay games and season ticket sales, 12 of the top-15 attendance figures in CU women's basketball history have come since 2001.

The Jays played before 4,439 fans - the largest crowd in their home history on March 31, 2003 when they played host to Auburn in the WNIT Semifinals. CU hosted three more WNIT games in 2004 and once again brought in a crowd of more than 4,000.

Since the turn of the century, the Bluejays are 62-14 (.816) at home, including one of the nation's longest home court winning streaks of 23 games from 2001 through 2003. Two consecutive 9-0 home records in MVC play helped CU post 28 consecutive home conference wins from 2001 through 2004, the second-longest such streak in MVC history.
